

AMAZING FACTS ABOUT OUR WORLD

A. Complete the sentences with the superlative form of the adjectives in brackets

Did you know that...

- The River Nile is the 1. (long) in the world.
- The Pacific Ocean is larger than the Atlantic Ocean and the 2. (deep) ocean in the world.
- Antarctica is the 3. (cold) and 4. (wet) place on Earth. It is also the 5. (dry) place in the world. How is this possible? In a place in Antarctica, The Dry Valleys, it never rains!
- The Arabian Desert in the Middle East is one of the 6. (hot) environments on Earth.

B. Complete the sentences with the comparative or the superlative form of the adjectives in brackets.

- African elephants are 1. (heavy) and 2. (large) than Asian elephants, and they've got 3. (big) ears. However, Asian elephants are 4. (intelligent)! Both African and Asian elephants, the 5. (large) land animals on Earth, can't jump!
- In cartoons, hippos are happy and funny. But real hippos are 6. (dangerous) than lions and tigers! And did you know that they are 7. (good) swimmers than most animals? They can hold their breath for up to 5 minutes underwater!
- Blue whales are the 8. (big) animals in the history of the earth. When a blue whale is born, it is as big as an adult hippo! And it is also the 9. (loud) animal in the world. You can hear the sounds of a blue whale even if you are hundreds of kilometres away!

